About the Presenter:

Cheryl Garland, MS, NCC, LMHC is a Clinical Therapist and Clinical Director/Owner of Integrative Counseling Solutions, Inc. in West Des Moines and Knoxville, IA.

Cheryl is trained in Adlerian Play Therapy with Dr. Kristin Meany Whalen and utilizes it in her work with children. Cheryl specializes in trauma, ADHD and other Clinical diagnoses that impact education, working with families and child welfare.

“Play therapy, a modality of child therapy is a powerful tool for addressing cognitive, behavioral, and emotional challenges. Play therapeutically helps children process their experience and develop more effective strategies for managing their worlds. Play is a natural process that supports building trust and mastery experiences.”
Association for Play Therapy

This workshop will address the types of ethical issues that often occur when working with children and families. This workshop includes fun, experiential activities and a sense of humor.

Objectives:

1. Participants will gain understanding of The Ethical Decision Making Process.
2. Participants will be able to define the problem, identify the dilemma and sub issues.
3. Participants will learn how to review/consult the law, ethics codes and institutional policy.
4. Participants will learn how to obtain outside perspective, enumerate options and consequences.
5. Participants will be able to identify common ethics breaches and how that can impact their clients and their agencies.
6. Participants will gain understanding and insight to their own personal influences and see how the development of their own ethics and values supports their clients and the agencies they work for.
