

Ethics Best Practices for LMHC's & LMFT's

Fri., Aug. 6th, 2021

FEATURING:

Cheryl Garland, MS, LMHC, RPT-S

This workshop will address the types of ethical issues that often occur when working with children and families. This workshop includes fun, experiential activities and a sense of humor.

Integrative Counseling Solutions invite you to join us for a half day of Ethics Training for Therapists via Zoom. This program is open to all graduate students and therapists, counselors, marriage and family therapists, and psychologists who are looking to advance their knowledge and meet licensure CE Requirements.

Objectives:

1. Participants will gain understanding of The Ethical Decision Making Process.
2. Participants will be able to define the problem, identify the dilemma and sub issues.
3. Participants will learn how to review/consult the law, ethics codes and institutional policy.
4. Participants will learn how to obtain policies, outside perspective, enumerate options and consequences.
5. Participants will be able to identify common ethics breaches and how that can impact their clients and their agencies.
6. Participants will gain understanding and insight to their own personal influences and see how the development of their own ethics and values support their clients and the agencies they work for.
